

Matts Batryn

Associate

Philadelphia, PA

215.564.8132

mbatryn@stradley.com

Matts Batryn is a member of the firm's business department, representing commercial banks, investment funds, private equity sponsors, non-bank lenders and public and private corporations in structuring secured and unsecured credit facilities, including acquisition financings, syndicated loans, asset-based loans, real estate secured transactions and debtor-in-possession facilities.

Matts received his J.D. from Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law, where he served as executive chair of the National Moot Court Team and was selected to The Order of Barristers. He was an intern in the office of former Pennsylvania Attorney General Josh Shapiro and an intern to Judge Edward Marsico Jr. of the Dauphin County Court of Common Pleas.

RECOGNITIONS

- Dean's Fellow Scholarship Recipient, Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law

IN THE COMMUNITY

As a proponent of community service, Matts served on the board of Archway Community Services' Inclusion & Diversity Committee and founded its annual Inclusive Employer Excellence Awards.

FOCUS

Finance & Restructuring
Financial Services
Public Finance
Real Estate

BAR ADMISSIONS

Pennsylvania

EDUCATION

J.D., Pennsylvania State University
Dickinson School of Law
B.A., University of the Fraser Valley

MEMBERSHIPS

Member of The Order of Barristers

