Patrick Green focuses his practice on counseling investment companies and investment advisers on regulatory, compliance and transactional issues. He advises investment management clients in all aspects of legal representation, including drafting and reviewing registration statements, proxy solicitation materials, and other regulatory filings; researching various securities and corporate law issues; and preparing board materials.

Prior to joining Stradley Ronon, Patrick was a senior attorney at the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) within the Office of Oversight Liaison & Counsel. He graduated from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law and earned his B.S. in Business Economics & Public Policy and Finance from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University. While in law school, Patrick served as an intern within the Office of International Affairs at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
