Gabriella Leyhane focuses her practice on counseling investment companies including mutual funds, closed-end funds and exchange-traded funds, and investment advisers on regulatory, compliance, and transactional issues. She advises investment management clients in all aspects of legal representation, including drafting and reviewing registration statements, proxy solicitation materials, and other regulatory filings; researching various securities and corporate law issues; and preparing board materials.

Gabriella graduated magna cum laude from DePaul University College of Law, where she was a member of the DePaul Law Review. While in law school, she worked full time as a legal assistant at a high-volume property tax law firm in Chicago. Gabriella received her B.A. in political science from the University of Notre Dame.
