

Jonathan B. Miller

Senior Counsel

New York, NY

212.540.4572

jbmiller@stradley.com

As senior counsel, Jonathan Miller advises clients on sophisticated domestic and international matters in the areas of corporate finance and securities regulation and issues related to the Investment Company Act of 1940 and the Investment Advisers Act.

Jon has worked on a diverse range of financing transactions, including securities offerings for investment funds and advisers, hedge funds and mortgage REITs. He also has represented clients in public and private equity and debt offerings involving various industries, including financial services, energy, manufacturing, technology and telecommunications.

Prior to joining Stradley Ronon, Jon was senior counsel in the New York office of a leading multinational law firm, where he gained international experience working in their Tokyo office.

RESULTS

- represented a number of Nuveen leveraged closed-end funds in connection with the funds' offerings of different types of Preferred Shares, including Variable Rate Demand, Variable Rate Remarketed and Variable Rate Preferred Shares, in an aggregate outstanding amount of approximately $12 billion, and related matters, including the leverage aspects of fund mergers

RECOGNITIONS

- The Legal 500 U.S.*, recommended for investment fund formation and management: mutual/registered funds

IN THE COMMUNITY

Jon has advised a number of nonprofits in connection with organizational matters and applying for 501(c)(3) status, including, most recently, an organization founded to help undocumented immigrants in New York City.

FOCUS

Investment Management
Corporate & Securities
Investment Advisers
Registered Investment Companies

BAR ADMISSIONS

New York

EDUCATION

J.D., Columbia Law School
A.B., Princeton University

MEMBERSHIPS

American Bar Association

