Claire Olivar focuses her practice on counseling investment companies (including mutual funds, closed-end funds and exchange-traded funds) and investment advisers on regulatory, compliance, and transactional issues. She advises investment management clients in all aspects of legal representation, including drafting and reviewing registration statements, proxy solicitation materials, and other regulatory filings; researching various securities and corporate law issues; and preparing board materials.

During law school, Claire was vice president of the Temple Asian Pacific American Law Students Association and a member of the national and Pennsylvania chapters of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association. She also worked as a legal intern at Subaru of America and a compliance intern at Aramark.

Prior to law school, Claire worked as a legal assistant at a high-volume residential mortgage foreclosure law firm in Philadelphia. She has also interned with the corporate communications department at Comcast and was previously an on-air television host for MTV Philippines in Manila, Philippines.
