Gretchen Santamour is a member of Stradley Ronon's Finance Practice Group and the Business Reorganization and Bankruptcy Practice Group. Gretchen focuses her practice on business restructurings, loan workout, loan documentation, bankruptcy, collection and foreclosure litigation.

RESULTS

Gretchen has represented:

- Hyperion Bank in a significant victory and decision for the banking industry
- a national financial institution in a receivership of 34 skilled nursing homes and assisted living facilities
- a regional lender in a $10.5 million commercial real estate acquisition and renovation loan to a private equity real estate fund
- a national lender in a $29 million construction loan for a 172 unit multifamily building
- a national lender in the successful restructure of a $40 million aggregate loan facility secured by commercial real estate and Medicare/Medicaid receivables
- a national lender in the bankruptcy of a Delaware real estate developer indebted to lender for $25 million, including obtaining relief from stay, preventing confirmation of debtor's Plan of Reorganization and, ultimately, obtaining dismissal of the bankruptcy case
- the owners of a cellular telephone company in a Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization which resulted in payment to creditors in full and multimillion dollars in distributions to equity owners
- a community bank in the successful collection of several multimillion-dollar loans secured by residential real estate developments in various stages of approval and improvement
- a national lender in the documentation and closing of a multimillion-dollar working capital line of credit and term loan and involving an equity sponsor, two series of sub-debt and the acquisition of a Chinese subsidiary by the borrower
