

John Troost

Associate

Washington, DC

202.507.5155

jtroost@stradley.com

John Troost concentrates his practice on financial services litigation, with a primary focus on consumer finance matters. He also defends corporate and individual clients in complex civil litigation and government enforcement actions.

Prior to joining Stradley Ronon, John was an associate at a national law firm in Washington, D.C., focusing on financial services litigation. He graduated from Georgetown University Law Center, magna cum laude, and earned his B.A. in economics from Yale University.

RESULTS

- successfully represented financial services entity in confidential enforcement actions brought in tandem by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and the New York Department of Financial Services relating to alleged violations of unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts or practices law
- obtained multi-billion settlement for international gaming conglomerate in litigation in Nevada state court arising from dispute over control of Wynn Resorts, Ltd.

FOCUS

Litigation

Financial Services Litigation

Complex Commercial & Class Action Litigation

BAR ADMISSIONS

District of Columbia

Maryland

Virginia

COURTS

U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland

U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

EDUCATION

J.D., magna cum laude, Georgetown University Law Center

B.A., Yale University

