Michael J. Wise focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation. His experience includes contract disputes, construction disputes, matters involving fraud and fiduciary violations, shareholder oppression claims and consumer disputes.

Michael received his J.D. from Rutgers Law School – Camden where he was staff editor for the Rutgers Law Review and had his student piece published in the annual State Constitutional Law Issue. After law school, Michael completed two judicial clerkships in the New Jersey Superior Court. First, in the Law Division-Camden Vicinage to the Honorable Richard F. Wells, J.S.C., and then in the Appellate Division to the Honorable William E. Nugent, J.A.D.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Michael served as an infantry sergeant in the New Jersey Army National Guard and completed a year-long deployment in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.
